

FSA

Sandy saves more on child care.

Sandy signs up for a dependent care flexible spending account (FSA) to help pay for child care and save more money. She saves because she doesn't have to pay taxes on the money she sets aside.

Sandy's tax savings

Sandy puts $5,000 into her dependent care FSA to help pay for her children's day care. See how her tax savings add up.

Total tax savings
$1,883

This is an example. Your savings may be different depending on your income tax rate, whether you pay state income taxes, and other factors.
